TAKING INVENTORY OF TOMORROW

(James 4:13-17) | Corinthians 1:27-31

LESSONS WE CAN LEARN ABOUT TOMORROW:

TOMORROW IS A DAY TO BE HUMBLE.

Come now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go into such and such a town and spend a year there and trade and make a profit” — As it is, you boast in your arrogance. All such boasting is evil James 3:13 & 16

TOMORROW IS A DAY OF MYSTERY.

... yet you do not know what tomorrow will bring.
What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little time and then vanishes. James 3:14

For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I have been fully known.
1 Corinthians 13:12

TOMORROW IS A DAY OF REST AND TRUST.

Instead you ought to say, “If the Lord wills, we will live and do this or that.” James 3:15

A pair of glasses with a light blue background and a white rectangular area containing text. The glasses are positioned in the foreground, with the lenses and bridge visible. The background is a light blue color with a subtle, cracked or marbled texture. The white rectangular area is centered and contains the year '2020' in a large, bold, black font. Above and below '2020' are other text elements that are partially obscured or blurred. The overall composition is clean and modern, with a focus on the year and the concept of vision.
