As he was approaching the age of, he decided to visit his brothers, the Israelites. When he saw one of them being mistreated, he came to his rescue and avenged the oppressed man by striking down the Egyptian. He assumed his brothers would understand that God would give them deliverance through him, but they did not understand.. The next day he showed up while they were fighting and tried to reconcile them peacefully, saying “Men, you are brothers. Why are you mistreating each other?”

“But the one who was mistreating his neighbor pushed him away, saying: Who appointed you a ruler and judge over us? Do you want to kill me, the same way you killed the Egyptian yesterday? “At this disclosure, Moses fled and became an exile in the land of Midian, where he fathered two sons. After years had passed, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in the flame of a burning bush.” Acts 7:23-30

Meanwhile, Moses was shepherding the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian. He fed the flock to the far side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. Then the Angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire within a bush. As Moses looked, he saw that the bush was on fire but was not consumed. When the Lord saw that he had gone over to look, God called out to him from the bush, "Moses, Moses!" "Here I am," he answered. "Do not come any closer," He said. "Remove the sandals from your feet for the palace you are standing is holy ground."
