

Preacher: Pastor Lawrence Johnson

Text: Acts 8

2/15/26

I. Divine Instruction and Obedience (vv. 26-28)

- A Call to the Desert: An angel instructs Philip to leave a fruitful ministry for a lonely, dangerous, desert road.
- A Prepared Heart: Philip obeys without question, demonstrating immediate obedience to God's direction.
- The Divine Appointment: The Ethiopian, a high-ranking official, is reading scripture while returning from worshipping in Jerusalem.

II. The Engagement and Exposition (vv. 29-35)

- Holy Spirit Initiative: The Spirit instructs Philip to approach the chariot.
- Bridging the Gap: Philip initiates conversation by asking if the man understands the scripture (Isaiah 53).
- An Open Invitation: The eunuch invites Philip to explain, showing a teachable spirit.
- The Gospel Message: Starting from the text, Philip explains that Jesus is the fulfillment of the prophesied suffering servant.

III. The Conversion and Continuation (vv. 36-40)

- A Request for Baptism: Upon seeing water, the eunuch requests baptism, signifying his acceptance of Jesus.
- Inclusive Grace: A marginalized outsider (Ethiopian/eunuch) is fully accepted into God's family.
- Supernatural Transport: The Spirit takes Philip away to Azotus, where he continues preaching.
- Rejoicing Believer: The eunuch continues his journey with joy, likely initiating the spread of Christianity in Ethiopia.

Key Themes

- Obedience to the Spirit: Following God's guidance regardless of the circumstances.
- Divine Appointments: God orchestrates meetings for evangelism.
- Proclaiming Christ: Using Scripture to reveal Jesus as the savior.
- Inclusivity: The gospel is for everyone, regardless of status or background.
